

CARL NIELSEN BIBLIOGRAPHY 1985 – 1995

By Kirsten Flensborg Petersen

This bibliography is a supplement to Mina F. Miller: Carl Nielsen A guide to research (New York 1987) covering the period 1985 to 1995, together with a few additions to Miller's bibliography.

The bibliography includes monographs and articles, plus dissertations from Denmark and the rest of the world. Important book reviews from specialist journals are included, but not reviews of recordings or concerts, CD booklets or magazine articles. As in Miller's bibliography the list encompasses both scholarly research and more journalistic articles written for a general readership.

The next instalment of the bibliography in Carl Nielsen Studies will cover the period from 1996 to the present, after which each volume will contain updates, together with supplements to previous lists.

Titles are given in the original language, and for languages other than English, French and German an English translation is added in parentheses.
